UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

OSI

OFFICE OF SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS

▶▶▶ EYES OF THE EAGLE

A Broad, Exciting Mission

The U.S Air Force Office of Special Investigations (OSI) is a federal law enforcement and investigative agency operating throughout the full spectrum of warfare! OSI agents get high-level responsibility fast. Armed with elite investigative training and state-of-the-art technology, OSI's 1,700 special agents and 800 professional staff personnel enforce justice as they:

- ▶ Protect Secrets and Detect Threats
- ▶ Conduct Investigations
- ▶ Provide Specialized Services
- ▶ Engage Foreign Threats
- ▶ Investigate Cyber Crimes

A Chance to Serve

OSI agents are a mix of active duty officers and enlisted personnel, civilians, and Air Force reservists who share a common desire – to serve their country as a member of the Air Force's premier investigative service. To defend our country and protect its interests, OSI agents travel the world to protect the people and resources of the U.S. Air Force:

- ▶ The Middle East and Asia
- ▶ Europe—United States commitment to NATO
- ▶ Hawaii, Alaska and Asia—protecting vital interests and trade in the Pacific
- ▶ And all over the United States—supporting homeland defense and Air Force readiness

World Class Training

OSI agents earn their badges and credentials at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center in Glynco, Ga. There, they receive training in all aspects of law enforcement tools and techniques, including:

- ▶ Firearms and defensive tactics
- ▶ Forensics
- ▶ Specialized investigative techniques
- ▶ Surveillance and surveillance detection
- ▶ Antiterrorism techniques
- ▶ Interrogations and interviews
- ▶ Military and Federal law
- ▶ Crime Scene Processing

Enlisted Agent

“I enjoy the amount of responsibility I have as an OSI agent. Many times agents find themselves as one or two-person teams and they are expected to be the subject matter expert on criminal and counterintelligence issues.”

Officer Agent

“The thing I like most about being an OSI agent is the diversity of our mission and the team we have assembled to carry it out. Our true strength is our work force. The makeup of our agent force is unmatched.”

Civilian Agent

“Agents receive area specific training throughout their careers in formal courses, but informal training plays just as important a role. I have learned just as much from senior OSI agents as well as agents from other agencies.”

— OSI offers a breadth of investigative opportunities no other law enforcement agency can match.

— OSI agents serve their nation in more than 40 overseas locations and all 50 states, bringing their elite investigative skills to every corner of the globe.

— Our agents expand their skills with numerous specialized training opportunities and they train in a diverse set of investigations.
