Department of the Air Force Office of Special Investigations

Anonymous Tip Reporting

The OSI Tip Line provides a safe, discreet, and anonymous option to report criminal, counterintelligence, or force protection concerns to OSI. www.P3tips.com/1111

YOUR TIPS SUPPORT OUR MISSION

To identify, exploit, and neutralize criminal, intelligence, and terrorist threats in multiple domains to the Department of the Air Force, Department of Defense, and the United States Government.

OSI is the Department of the Air Force's only agency capable of executing criminal and counterintelligence investigations and operations across the full spectrum of conflict and in any domain. OSI is charged with autonomous, timely, and unbiased investigative responsibilities to:

Defend the Nation
Pursue Justice
Protect the Department of the Air Force
Find the Truth

What types of crimes should I report?
You should report counterintelligence concerns, force protection matters, or criminal activities including homicide, rape, sexual assault, child physical and sexual abuse, larceny of government and personal property, and aggravated assault. When in doubt – report it. Do not transmit suspected classified information.

How do I submit a tip to OSI?
Visit www.p3tips.com/1111 from a desktop or use the QR code to access the portal from your mobile device.

What happens when I submit a tip to the tip portal?
When you submit a tip, you will receive a unique tip number and will be able to correspond directly with OSI. You will be able to provide additional information and may attach photos and documents to support your tip. Check your tip submission to see if further information is needed to resolve the matter reported.

Can I provide contact information?
You have the option to submit personal contact information or to remain anonymous.

Can I still call or go directly to my local OSI Unit to report a tip?
Yes, contact information can be obtained from your local base directory.
